

Meet our New Crown Choir Director Mark Petty!

We are excited to introduce our new director Mark Petty. Mark has a truly remarkable choral background that includes 28 years in music and experiential education. He has Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctorate degrees in Choral Conducting and professional choral experience far too long to list including conducting Chamber Singers, mixed Chorale and Jam Band, conducting five school ensembles and so much more. He has taught advanced conducting courses, vocal pedagogy, graduate classes in Icelandic Choral Music and a multitude of classes and seminars. Mark's choral resume is deep and richly varied.

Welcome Mark! We are so lucky to have you take the Crown Choir into our next chapter!
